

Hostage Negotiation

NUMBER OF DAYS:	5	(See Schedule for Dates)
TIME:	0800-1600
LOCATION:	725 Route 25, Ridge, NY 11961
COST:	$1150

Course Overview

Hostage-taking is a worldwide activity, not limited to a particular country, nationality, race, sex, or cause; and, as a result, successful solutions to such occurrences have been sought by most law enforcement agencies. Strategic Security Corp.'s Counter Terrorist Unit and Global Training Center are dedicated to assisting clients in mitigating the negative effects of hostage situations and ensuring a positive outcome.

The course examines various suggested ideas for handling these situations. The training days will consist of eight hour days usually taught during the day. The course content will include the following:

- Introduction to Crisis Negotiations
- Tactical Use of Negotiations
- Team Structure
- Basics of Negotiating
- Communication Skills
- Psychology of Negotiations
- Case Studies
- Dealing with the Media
- How to Survive as a Hostage

Admission

Courses are restricted to active or retired law enforcement, military personnel, qualified civilian security professionals and students in an accredited academic institution. All courses are hands on and involve academic as well as practical application. Trainees must provide a copy of their official identification. Each trainee must be in good physical health and not possess any medical conditions that would prohibit the trainee from strenuous activity.
